

YOUTH LINK: NI

PRIVACY NOTICE – CASUAL WORKERS & VOLUNTEERS

Dear Casual Worker / Volunteer

We wish to inform you about the steps Youth Link has taken to comply with the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), effective from 25 May 2018.

The aim of the GDPR is to protect individuals from privacy and data breaches in an increasingly data-driven world. As a result, this privacy notice explains how Youth Link will use the personal data it collects from you.

How your information will be used

1. Youth Link: NI needs to keep and process information about you to facilitate management of its training programmes and payments to you, if applicable. The information we hold and process will be used for our management and administrative use only. We will keep and use it to enable us to run the business and manage our relationship with you effectively, lawfully and appropriately. This includes using information to enable us to make payments to you, to comply with any legal requirements, pursue the legitimate interests of Youth Link: NI and protect our legal position in the event of legal proceedings. If you do not provide this data, we may be unable in some circumstances to comply with our obligations and we will tell you about the implications of that decision.
2. We only collect basic personal data about you which does not include any special types of information or location based information. This does however include name, address, email etc.
3. Where we process special categories of information relating to your racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious and philosophical beliefs, biometric data or sexual orientation, we will always obtain your explicit consent to those activities unless this is not required by law or the information is required to protect your health in an emergency. Where we are processing data based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time.
4. Much of the information we hold will have been provided by you when you became a volunteer or Trustee of Youth Link or submitted your Curriculum Vitae if interested in casual work, but some may come from other internal sources, such as your manager, or in some cases, external sources, such as referees.
5. The sort of information we hold may include your Curriculum Vitae, evidence of your qualifications and references and correspondence with or about you.
6. Youth Link has a Data Protection policy in place to oversee the effective and secure processing of your personal data. This policy is available on its website or upon request.
7. Other than as mentioned below, we will only disclose information about you to third parties if we are legally obliged to do so or where we need to comply with our contractual duties to you or to allow us to pursue our legitimate business interests, for instance we may need to pass on certain information to HMRC, Companies House, the Charity Commission for NI or our external company accountant or legal advisors.
8. In limited and necessary circumstances, your information may be transferred outside of the European Economic Area (EEA) or to an international organisation to comply with our legal or contractual requirements. We have in place safeguards including the following, to ensure the security of your data, ie paper records in these categories are kept in lockable cupboards or drawers when not in use; a clear desk policy is recommended, where files and other paper documentation are locked away at the end of the working day; electronic records in these categories are kept password protected within databases or stored in a shared drive that the relevant people have access to; portable storage devices should be encrypted or not used at all; antivirus software will be kept up to date on all desktops and laptops and any mobile devices will be password protected; email is not a secure system, so confidentiality cannot be assured for any information sent via email.

9. Some of the data we hold about you we need to retain for a statutory period and others we retain for set periods for legitimate reasons. Details of our retention periods are contained at the end of this document.
10. If in the future we intend to process your personal data for a purpose other than that which it was collected for we will provide you with information on that purpose and any other relevant information.

Your rights

11. Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and The Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) you have a number of rights with regard to your personal data. You have the right to request from us access to and rectification or erasure of your personal data, the right to restrict processing, object to processing as well as in certain circumstances the right to data portability.
12. If you have provided consent for the processing of your data you have the right (in certain circumstances) to withdraw that consent at any time which will not affect the lawfulness of the processing before your consent was withdrawn.
13. You have the right to lodge a complaint to the Information Commissioners' Office if you believe that we have not complied with the requirements of the GDPR or DPA 18 with regard to your personal data.

Identity and contact details of data controller

14. Helen Blackley, Youth Link: NI is the controller of data for the purposes of the DPA 2018 and GDPR.
15. If you have any concerns as to how your data is processed you can contact: Helen Blackley, Deputy Director – Corporate Affairs.
